ABOUT ME

I pride myself in my pursuit of mastery in life: I triple-majored for my undergraduate education; I moved to France to immerse myself in its culture and language; I completed a full marathon before ever running a half-marathon; I expanded my passion for programming, graduating from an intense training program to become a software engineer.

EDUCATION

Front-End Engineering   THE IRON YARD

The immersiveness of this program pushed me to think and act like a programmer from day one. Here, I acquired resourceful problem-solving techniques, preparing me to confront any challenge.

BA Liberal Arts, BA Fine Arts   UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS

With a driven mindset, I decided to triple-major in Linguistics, French and Art History, uniting my passions for languages and logic with art and design.
